

Meeting start 6:53

First meeting of new years. John and Rhoss have been talking to 'New John' (I don't know his last name and we have a few Johns now) about Geecon to get it started. New John announced the Geecon, John and Rhoss will be running the tabletop gaming booth. We will be getting a decent sized space at the convention centre if the event goes through. 1000 people for the con to go forward. Tickets cost estimated $150 for 3 days. Prices aren't set so this is subject to change.

Next meeting on the 26th

2nd board game day coming up on the 28th, logo competition on hiatus for now. Brad to contact Rhoss and/or Alex to transfer banks. Special meeting will be held at the next board game day to present the annual audit.
